

Nonprofit Survey

Having trouble jumpstarting a discussion or getting members to think “outside the box”? You may find the following gestions helpful.

1. What one thing could our group do better?
2. What could our chapter do to make every meeting more interesting?
3. How can you build up a member of your group who is struggling?
4. Do you feel you have the freedom to float new ideas?
5. How do you tactfully derail someone taking a trip on a tangent train?
6. Are you excited about going to meetings every month? If not, what would have to change to make you feel that way?
7. Do we have greater potential growth by increasing attendance of our existing members or by attracting new members?
8. Which is more valuable in a member, initiative or loyalty?
9. What produces the best results, spontaneity or preparedness?
10. Why did you join our nonprofit?
11. If you could break all the rules, which one would you start with?
12. How much of the group notices you receive do you read? What do you read, not read, and why?
13. What is the most exciting non profit event you've ever witnessed?
14. What one thing could our group do better?
15. Have you seen better days? What was different?

16. How can the group do a better job of recognizing member's efforts?
17. If you had to find a way to cut costs and improve the experience of being a member, what would you do?
18. What could we do to improve our working relationship with other nonprofits?
19. How do you think outsiders view our group? How are we not improving changing or capitalizing on that perception?
20. Why do people leave the group?
21. What activities can we spend less time on and still obtain acceptable results?